

SPARTAN READY

The University of Tampa graduates students who are prepared to be successful individuals with an advanced understanding of their field of study, the interdisciplinary workplace and how to be leaders who contribute to society.

Institution-wide Approach

- Student Affairs and Academic Affairs collaboration
- Identified and defined
- Faculty Staff/Steering Committee
- Curricular/co-curricular infusion
- Branded and trademarked brand
- Integrated from matriculation to graduation

Implementation Examples

- Faculty orientation
- Partnership with faculty Center for Teaching and Learning
- Skillshops for student employees
- Student awards criteria
- Alternative break reflections
- Speech contest evaluation criteria
- First year experience course infusion
- Mapping to orientation programs
- "Spartan Living" – Residence Life curriculum

Contacts for more information:

- Dr. Cheri Etling-Paulsen, Associate Dean, Center for Teaching and Learning, cetling@ut.edu
- Tim Harding, Associate Dean of Career Development and Engagement, tharding@ut.edu
- Amber Myer, Coordinator of Student Competency Development Programs, amy@ut.edu